

ROOKHALLOW · RULES

Three to Thirteen

Eleven rounds, a new wild card each round, lowest total wins

Two to seven players. Two packs of cards shuffled together, aces and 2s out and jokers in, or a deck made for the game.

HOW TO PLAY

- 1 There are eleven rounds. Deal three cards each in the first, then one more every round, up to thirteen in the last.
- 2 The wild card is the rank that matches the cards dealt: 3s in the first round, Kings in the last. Jokers are always wild.
- 3 Turn the next card up to start the discard pile. On your turn, take the top card of the deck or the discard pile, then discard one.
- 4 Build your hand into books and runs. A book is three or more cards of one rank, and a run is three or more in a row in one suit. A wild fills any gap.
- 5 Keep your cards in your hand until you can go out: every card but your discard laid down in books and runs.
- 6 Once someone goes out, everyone else has one more turn, lays down what they can and scores the cards left in their hand.
- 7 The deal passes to the left each round. After the eleventh round the lowest total wins.
